

LA FOLLETTE LOSING SECOND PLACE IN THE "DIGEST'S" PRESIDENTIAL POLL; DAVIS LEADING IN TWELVE STATES

Davis has almost overtaken La Follette in this week's returns of the Literary Digest's nation-wide presidential poll, which are released today. Besides increasing his popular vote, the Democratic candidate has gained ascendancy in Kentucky by the week's tabulations which gives him leadership in 12 states.

Coolidge has 1,293,378 votes; Davis, 487,782; and La Follette, 496,006 of the 2,300,484 ballots now recorded.

Davis has brought down La Follette's lead over him from 48,455 last week to 8,224 this week, a gain of over 40,000. President Coolidge has also increased his percentage of the popular vote a fraction. Senator La Follette's share has declined over one per cent.

Expressed in percentages, the last three tabulations of the vote, including the present one, show the standing of the candidates as follows:

October	Total Vote	Coolidge	Davis	La Follette	Minor Candidates
1	1,451,591	55.69	18.99	24.19	1.13
15	1,903,004	56.05	20.19	22.73	1.05
22	2,300,484	56.22	21.09	21.57	1.01

California and West Virginia continue in the doubtful column.

In Illinois, Coolidge is leading La Follette by 2 1/2 to 1 and Davis by 5 to 1. The President outnumbers Davis nearly 5 to 1 and La Follette over 2 to 1, in Iowa; Davis over 2 to 1 and La Follette more than 5 to 1, in Indiana; Davis nearly 7 to 1 and La Follette almost 2 to 1, in Minnesota; and Davis by 5 to 1 and La Follette by 2 to 1 in New York.

This poll is any indication, the Digest states, "President Coolidge is likely to receive considerably more than a sufficient number of votes in the Electoral College to insure his election to succeed himself as the next President of the United States." Kentucky, since last week, has switched from the Republican to the Democratic column, and West Virginia continues to show such an even balance between Davis and Coolidge that it may be put in the doubtful column.

"California, with its present vote of 76,049 for Coolidge, to 67,050 for La Follette, may also, to avoid argument, be considered doubtful.

"The Digest figures, of course, appear very differently, as to their probable accuracy, according as the observer is on the Republican or Democratic side of the political fence. The Democratic National Campaign Committee, we are informed, has gone so far as to send out several dispatches attacking the accuracy of the poll.

"Democratic editors throughout the country argue that it overestimates the Republican strength by anywhere from 10 to 33 1/3 per cent. Few Republican publicists, apparently, believe that it underestimates Republican chances.

"Taking Mr. Coolidge's vote by States, and lopping off a third, as a critic suggests, straight down the list a slightly different story is told, in the return of 2,300,000 votes tabulated herewith.

"Coolidge would lose California,

Nevada, and South Dakota to La Follette; Maryland, Missouri, Oklahoma and West Virginia, to Mr. Davis. This would reduce his present indicated vote in the Electoral College by 65, still leaving a total of more than 300, however, with only 266 required for election.

"This general situation is, of course, calculated to give the Republicans much comfort, but it is put forward by the Digest merely as a news venture.

"Mr. Davis is, of course, shown by the present returns to be on a practical equality with La Follette in actual number of votes received, and very far ahead in electoral votes.

"The argument that polls and other political news should be suppressed because they hurt the prospects of one or the other of the political parties does not, naturally, find favor with the party shown to be in the lead and, if Mr. Davis happened to be leading the poll, it is a question whether all these Democratic writers would think it so bad and sad.

"The striking recent gain of the Democratic candidate recalls the frequent claim of Mr. Davis's champions that the Democratic campaign throughout the country was late in getting started, and may be expected to develop its full strength only on the eve of election."

Women Speakers Volunteer Services To Campaign For Republican Party; Every Walk In Life Is Represented

MISS ELEANOR P. BARKER, MRS. HARRIET TAYLOR UPTON, MRS. CHARLES W. SEWELL.

Women speakers from every walk in life have volunteered their services to campaign for the Republican party. They are carrying the message of the achievements of Coolidge and Dawes and the Republican party from coast to coast, some addressing as many as four audiences a day.

Mrs. Florence Riddick, who is routing the women speakers from the national headquarters in Chicago, has enrolled in the neighborhood of 200 speakers, while Helen Varick Boswell, of the speakers' bureau, Eastern headquarters, New York City, reports more than 150 active speakers.

A flying squadron of speakers is being sent into states where the contest is the hottest, and reports show that many a convert is being won as a result of their oratory.

Mrs. Guy P. Gannett, National Committee woman from Maine, says the flying squadron sent into Maine did much to swing the women's vote in the state election. An address delivered by women speakers the fact is being driven home that there are 25,000,000 women eligible to vote in November and every effort should be made to see that these women vote.

There will be 2,782,475 young women eligible to vote, who will assume the duties of citizenship for the first time this year.

Mrs. Upton, who is the principal speaker at a series of campaign political schools conducted in the state of Missouri this month, led the Republican women of the country for four years. She was appointed vice-chairman of the Republican National Committee in the 1920 campaign, which office she held until the Cleveland convention last June, when she was succeeded by Mrs. Alvin T. Hart, present leader.

Mrs. Sewell, the wife of a real dirt farmer, is well known through the west and middle west for her work with farm women. She is heading the squadron of women speakers, which is carrying the message of the Republican party to women living in the rural districts.

While Miss Barker has never been an aspirant or candidate for political office she has always been an active worker in the interests of legislation beneficial to women and children and for the upholding of the principles of the Republican party. She is a practicing attorney in Indianapolis.

PENNSY-GRAMS

Stroudsburg, Pa., Oct. 23 (INS).—Carl Cunningham, chief engineer of Pecono Manor, near here, was shot to death last night in a pistol battle with a bandit he discovered robbing a cottage near Pecono Inn.

Attracted by a flickering light in the cottage, known to be unoccupied, Cunningham and two employees of the inn went to investigate. As they entered four shots rang out and Cunningham fell mortally wounded.

Superficial Thinkers.

A group of clubmen were talking and the subject of dreams came up. Presently one said: "I remember reading of a dream so vivid that it was fatal to the dreamer. A man dreamed that he was living in the days of the French Revolution, and was one of the victims led to the guillotine. When his turn came and the big knife descended, the shock to his nervous system was so great that it killed him; he never woke up." This brought out various exclamations, such as "Most remarkable!" etc. but not one of the listeners discovered the flaw in his story. He waited a few minutes, and then said: "Well, boys, you're a smart lot, I must say, to swallow that yarn. How in the world could anyone know what that man had been dreaming about if he never woke up?"

Appreciation.

The artist was proud of his latest canvas: it was a futuristic painting, supposed to represent a Dutch landscape. He made arrangements to exhibit it in the art museum, and beneath it hung a printed notice bearing the words: "Do not touch with cane or umbrella." When he went back to secure the return of his painting, he found that an appreciative boy had added to the sign the following postscript: "Take an ax."—Everybody's Magazine.

CHARLES MAYO ELLS OF CURE FOR RIGID PARALYSIS

By LES CONKLIN

N. S. Staff Correspondent.
New York, Oct. 23—A simple operation discovered recently by two Australian surgeons, which will result in normal functioning of the limbs affected from rigid paralysis, was announced here this afternoon by Dr. H. Mayo, of Rochester, Minn., a surgeon of international reputation, in an interview with International Service. He gave the interview attending the Clinical Congress of the American College of Surgeons.

The discovery, Dr. Mayo said, "is of Dr. N. D. Royle and John I. Taylor, of Sydney. It is one of the important discoveries in the field of surgery in recent years."

That it amounts to is that paralyzed limbs can be made to function by the removal of certain sympathetic nerves. The result is to restore the patient's ability to change his position quickly. Besides, it has been found that, after the operation, the patient usually gains in muscular power.

In operation, Dr. Mayo said, had tried several times within the year with success. Other doctors during the Congress predicted that, as a result of Dr. Mayo's description of the operation, it would come into general use in the United States.

The first temperance society was organized in Germany in 1600. Members agreed not to drink more than fourteen glasses of wine a day. But people generally drank more than that. In 1650 a temperance society was organized in New Jersey. Its members agreed not to drink more than one glass of rum or whisky a day. In 1700 the Washingtonian society was organized in Baltimore, Md. Six of its members swore off forever and agreed to abstain from drinking for 100 years. The pledge had been taken by 620,000 persons.

Fill With Beeswax.
Cracks in furniture can be filled in with beeswax. First slightly soften the beeswax until it is like putty, then press firmly into the cracks and smooth evenly with a thin steel knife. Sandpaper over the surrounding wood and work the dust into the beeswax. This gives a wood finish, or color, and when the furniture is varnished the cracks will have disappeared. Beeswax is better than putty. Putty soon dries, crumbles and falls out, while beeswax does not.

Always Looking "Upward"
There can be no direction "up" and "down" as applied to interstellar space. These terms refer to directions from a center of gravity. Any direction away from the surface of the earth is "up"; similarly any direction in space away from the surface of any planet or star in the universe would be "up." "Down" means the direction toward the center of a body. Therefore any inhabitant of the earth looking out into space from any point on the earth is looking "upward."

Hears With Spine
The case of Eugene Untermyester, a deaf mute who hears music through his spine, is puzzling Swiss scientists. Untermyester attended a concert at Bern recently and found that he could "hear" and enjoy the music, not through the ears but through the spine. His spine seems to be a kind of lightning conductor, he explained. He can hear almost no other sound except instrumental music, however.

Don't let constipation make you an invalid —relieve it with Kellogg's Bran

Few people realize how dangerous is constipation until this dread disease tears down their health. Did you know that more than forty serious diseases can be traced to constipation? Keep your health, or restore it, with Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumpled. It brings relief in mild and chronic cases of constipation. It is effective because it is ALL bran. That is why it is recommended so highly by doctors. They know that only ALL bran can bring 100 per cent results. Part bran is, at best, only a halfway measure. If eaten regularly, Kellogg's Bran will bring permanent relief—even in the most chronic case. It is guaranteed to do so. If it fails, your grocer will return your money. Because it is ALL bran it sweeps, cleans and purifies the intestine. Like nature, it acts naturally. It makes the intestine function regularly. Eat it every day—two tablespoons—in chronic cases, with every meal. Eat it with milk or cream. Sprinkle it over other cereals. Cook it with hot cereals. Enjoy it in those wonderful recipes given on every package. The flavor of Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumpled, is delicious. It is crisp, nut-like. Quite different from ordinary bran, which are so unpalatable. Kellogg's Bran is made in Battle Creek and served by the leading hotels and clubs everywhere. Sold by all grocers.

An old tobacco secret re-discovered—

Wellman's famous old secret

1921—
revived for Granger

1924—
a popular seller in 32 states—a quarter-million smokers

A new richness from an old-time process

Made for pipes—cut for pipes—packed sensibly to save money

NOW it can be told. Three years ago we decided to revive a famous old secret method of mellowing tobacco—"Wellman's Method", it was called.

For three years we have been quietly trying it out—we, and about a quarter-million shrewd pipe-smokers who discovered it for themselves.

No whirlwind campaigns, no "special offers", no extravagant claims; Granger Rough Cut has made good on its taste alone. There could be no better proof of its quality. Now we are ready to "tell the world".

An extraordinary pipe tobacco. "Wellman's Method"—now ours exclusively—not only mellows tobacco, but "rounds it out"—gives it a new taste, richer and milder.

There's no other method like it, nor any other tobacco like Granger.

And not only differently mellowed, but cut differently—cut for pipes. The Rough Cut burns more slowly, hence smokes cooler—and a pipe-load lasts nearly twice as long.

And finally—notice the package. If Granger Rough Cut were packed in fancy lithographed tins, it would cost 15 cents.

But wrapped in smart heavy foil, you get this fuller, longer, cooler smoke at a third less cost. Foil instead of costly tin—hence the price.

Too good to be true? Ask any man who has tried it. Better yet—get out your pipe!

10¢

Granger Rough Cut

A Pointer on Tobacco—
The slower a tobacco burns, the cooler it smokes. Also the longer it lasts. This slow burning is due to the fact that Granger is "rough cut" to smoke slow and cool—cut for pipes and cigarettes. And Wellman's famous old secret method produces richer fragrance and taste.

LESSON NO. 9 LIGHTING THE HALLS AND STAIRS

The main hall, where we welcome our guests, may be large or it may be small, but probably nothing will light it as well as an attractive ceiling fixture equipped with a total of from 60 to 100 watts of lamp bulbs.

If the hall is large enough, we may add a pair of bracket fixtures on the wall at either side of a pretty mirror, or we may use a small table lamp, or candlesticks on a console table. When we do this, the lights should be well shaded, of course, and not too bright. Economy suggests the use of 15 or 25-watt bulbs.

Upstairs halls or long private halls are usually best lighted with small ceiling fixtures equipped with 25 or 50-watt bulbs. In many homes, however, bracket fixtures may be used on the walls to give satisfactory lighting. When the house is wired, the lights in the halls should be put in so that they may be lighted from either upstairs or downstairs.

The lighting fixtures in the halls ought to be placed so that they will light the stairway as well as the hall. In large homes where the stairs turn or where there is a landing half way up, it may be advisable to install a small fixture at the turn to be sure the stairs are well lighted.

LIGHTING THE OUTSIDE OF THE HOUSE

Many homes that are being built now have a duplex convenience outlet installed on the porch so that portable lamps may be used to make an outdoor living room in pleasant weather.

In every home some lighting is needed at the main entrance and other doorways for convenience and safety at night. Lanterns of weatherproof metal are commonly used either as bracket or ceiling fixtures.

The driveway to the garage will need some light, perhaps from a fixture attached to the outside of the house. The lighting inside the garage should be installed so that it may be lighted from either the house or the garage. In more elaborate homes the gateway and drive may be equipped with ornamental lanterns or posts.

For outdoor fixtures a 50-watt bulb will usually be large enough. However, if a large space is to be lighted, as much as 100 watts may be needed.

PROPER WIRING

Hidden in the walls of a home are the wires that permit us to enjoy the comforts of electric service. They are out of sight and we never think about them, but they are very important for they limit our ability to use electricity for lighting and for appliances conveniently.

Every year we add something to the electric equipment in the home. Perhaps this year it is a new table lamp, last year it may have been a wash machine or a toaster, next year it may be a fan or a curling iron. Five years ago when the house was wired, we did not plan for these new things, and now we remove a lamp bulb to connect one of them, thus depriving ourselves of needed light and spoiling the appearance of the room by the unsightly cord which dangles from the socket.

The wiring in most homes can be made to give greater service today by the addition of convenience outlets (usually the duplex type, which permits two things to be connected to one outlet). In general, we need one of these for each fifty square feet of floor in the room. These may be placed in the wall near the floor or at a height of three or four feet above the floor to save bending over when we connect an appliance. Another feature of the properly wired home is a wall switch to control each of the principal lighting fixtures.

As a protection against accident, the main switch, which controls all the lights in the house, and the fuses should be in a modern metal box so designed that there can be no possibility of an electric shock.

Every householder is interested in these devices for comfort and convenience in the use of electric service, but he should not attempt to make changes in the wiring of the house without the services of a competent electrician who understands the precautions which must be taken for safety. There are specific rules in every city designed for the protection of the public and all changes in wiring must be made according to these rules.

Washington, Oct. 22 (INS)—A complete review of all disallowed claims in the Veterans Bureau, amounting to more than 500,000 will be carried out on an extensive plan as speedily as possible, Director Frank L. Hines announced today.

Several weeks ago the Disabled American Veterans, through National Commander Frank J. Irwin, brought the matter up to Director Hines as the most urgent proposition before the bureau and an investigation developed there are 533,106 of these disallowed claims Irwin believes that many of the disabled men have not received benefits either because they became discouraged by delays or else are unfamiliar with the Reed-Johnson bill which has many liberalizing clauses that would include many men who were barred under previous laws.

General Hines has assured the Veterans' Organization that he will continue to expand the force having this review work in charge until the task can be completed within a reasonable time.

Took Him Literally.

When people do not always understand sarcasm. An old country judge sitting up against a burglary recently sentenced sarcastically to the fact that the defendant was extremely conscientious in the way he attempted the burglary. Realizing that there was a sick woman in the house, he removed his boots before setting about his task, obviously in order not to disturb the sick woman. The jury, failing to note the sarcasm, acquitted the defendant!

At Last.
Two sisters—apparently all in all to each other—had lived together for many years. Then, when the one was ninety-eight and the other ninety-six, the elder died. The relative who undertook the task of breaking the painful news to the survivor feared the shock would be fatal to her. But the old lady bore up wonderfully. "Ah, well," she replied, "now I suppose I shall be able to have my tea made as I like it."—Royal Magazine (London).

Legality Of Printing Income Tax Returns Is Not Firmly Established

Washington, Oct. 24. (INS.)—The question of whether it is or is not legal for newspapers to publish individual income tax returns, thrown open to public inspection under the new revenue law, was left suspended in mid air today by the unwillingness or inability of government officials to issue a definite ruling on the matter.

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon and some of his principal aides at the department expressed the opinion that publication of the returns is illegal, but other treasury officials held different views and expressed the private opinion that the revenue law of 1924 permitted the publication of income tax paid.

In the face of this conflict of opinion, the department of justice marked time and did nothing except to announce that "in due course, a conclusion would be reached."

Meanwhile, solicitor General James M. Beck issued a formal statement the conclusion of which stated:

"In the meantime, responsibility for such publication must rest with those who in any way publish the details of individual incomes."

The Progress has available today a list of income taxes paid by prominent and wealthy citizens. It will refrain from printing them. First, for the reason that the legality of such a course is questioned and no good purpose is to be served by making a test. Second, because we believe that there is no warrant for such an invasion of the private affairs of individuals. People who want to see what taxes another paid would just as eagerly "peek" into another's pocketbook or "eave-drop" on a private conversation. Only when the income return of an individual is open to question should there be the privilege of publicity and not merely for the purpose of satisfying a minority which insists on poking its nose into another man's business.

What The Candidates Are Doing Today

PRESIDENT GIVES A
FINAL ACCOUNTING AND OUTLINES HIS VIEWS ON ISSUES

Washington, Oct. 23.—President Coolidge set forth tonight policies of administration under which he proposed that the government will "maintain peace, promote economy, provide a protective tariff, assist the farmers, leave the people in possession of their property and maintain the integrity of the courts."

In the last extended address he ever made before election and the comprehensive he has delivered in his speech of acceptance of the public nomination, the President declared his stand on practically every phase of Government affairs. He discussed campaign issues, in some instances for the first time.

Summarizing the administration's program, which he said had "brought an era of more than average prosperity," the President called attention that despite the "natural supposition that every well-wisher of the country would be anxious to maintain the present established order of things," there are now proposed "at least two of the most revolutionary changes" government ownership of transportation and limitation of the powers of the supreme court.

Public ownership, he described as a "most perilous undertaking, both to the welfare of business and the independence of the people. If powers of the supreme court were limited as proposed, he said, "the historian would close the chapter with the comment that the people had shown they were incapable of self-government and the American republic had proved a failure."

Mr. Coolidge said further reduction in federal taxes was possible on the basis of the estimated Government budget for next year, and he outlined as his "common sense" method of taxation:

"Getting all we can out of the rich by making the rates moderate and stimulating business to provide work and increase the earnings of the poor."

In foreign affairs the President promised co-operation in the interest of peace; declared for constitutional

FAMILY OF FOUR IS WIPED OUT IN A GRADE CROSSING ACCIDENT NEAR QUAKERTOWN ON THE READING RY.

Quakertown, Pa., Oct. 24. (INS.)—A family of four, two of them children were wiped out last night when an observation train bearing officials of the Reading railway struck and demolished their motor car at a grade crossing at Shelly Station, near here, scarcely 300 feet from their home.

The victims are Warren Dewees, 26; Mrs. Warren Dewees, 25; Gladys,

3, and Dorothy, 8 months.

The mother and the two children were killed outright while the father died two hours later at a Bethlehem hospital. The car was of the sedan type and it is believed the occupants failed to hear the approaching train. Their bodies were found beneath the twisted ruins of the car which was dragged 200 feet by the train.

MONTREAL PUT 4
TO DEATH TODAY
FOR BANK HOLD-UP

Montreal, Ont. Oct. 24. (INS.)—Amid the greatest secrecy and while a crowd of thousands fought with police outside, four murderers of a bank messenger in the $142,000 Hochelaga bank holdup last April, were hanged here today.

The four who died were Giuseppe Serafini, Antony Frank, Frank Gambino and Louis Morl. A fifth, who was to have been executed with them, Michael Valentino, was given a reprieve by the cabinet at the eleventh hour.

Louis Morl, leader of the bandits, and once a Montreal detective, wrote two letters as the hour approached for the march to the gallows. One was addressed to his children, the other to the newspapers. The second letter read:

"To my Creator:
"I offer you my death in the spirit of reparation for all the sins of my life. I offer you lastly my death as an act of perfect love—as a last act of love on earth. I pardon all as I implore the Holy Virgin to appease the anger of God and to preserve me from eternal malédiction."

Tony Frank Long has been recognized as an underworld leader in Montreal and Gambino was known as his Lieutenant. Morl was a member of the Montreal detective force for many years and was one of the greatest athletes in Canada.

Only two of the condemned men were present when Cleroux was killed; testimony showed. They were Morl and Serafini, but Frank and Gambino had taken an important part in the plotting of the robbery, it was shown.

PEDESTRIAN STRUCK
BY AUTO ON NICHOLS
STREET LAST NIGHT

W. S. Brady, of the produce firm of Brady & Brady, Coalport, was run down last evening by an automobile owned and operated by Robert Hadden, of Curwensville, and is now a patient at the Clearfield hospital suffering from severe cuts and bruises.

The accident occurred about 7 o'clock last evening on Nichols street about twenty-five or thirty feet beyond the store of James Purdon at the corner of Weaver and Nichols street. Hadden, with John Kelly, also of Curwensville, in his car, was traveling up Nichols street. Just after he had passed the Weaver street crossing Brady, who was crossing the street from the south to the north side, loomed up right in front of the car. Mr. Hadden says he did not see the pedestrian until Brady stepped directly in the path of the oncoming car. As he stepped in front of the car Mr. Brady turned almost facing it as he was struck and knocked down.

After striking the man the car was quickly brought to a stop by Mr. Hadden and he and Mr. Kelly ran to the scene.

Norristown, Pa., Oct. 23. (INS.)—William Mullen, 14-year-old Philadelphia boy, died at Montgomery Hospital Wednesday night as the result of a bullet wound received last Tuesday when he was accidentally shot by a brother Cyril, an instructor at the Catholic Protectorate school.

Both Brother Cyril and the boy described the shooting as accidental. The instructor said he picked up the pistol from a desk not knowing it was loaded. It discharged and struck the boy seated nearby.

YALE GRAD IS FOUND DEAD, CHAINED TO A TREE IN MOUNTAINS
NEAR WILLIAMSPORT

Chain Around Neck Was
Fastened by Yale Lock;
Path About Tree Mute
Evidence of Torture.

PROBABLY SUICIDE

Williamsport, Pa., Oct. 24. (INS.)—A well worn path leading from the old log road to the spot where the body of Henry H. McHenry, Yale graduate and former school teacher, of Ardmore, Pa., was found chained to a tree in the woodlands of Green Mountain, near here yesterday, forms the only clue today that might indicate to the authorities that the man was the victim of a fiendish murderer.

Because of the fact the woodlands are little frequented, the path at first was regarded highly significant and a gruesome theory was formed that the man may have been kidnapped by some person who bound him to the tree and then kept a close watch on him while he made frantic efforts to escape.

The path yielded no further clue, however, and because of other facts surrounding the finding of the body, it is believed a verdict of suicide will be brought in today by Coroner Geo. L. Schneider.

This suicide theory raised ground last night when the brokenhearted father of the man, E. H. McHenry, telephoned the authorities here from his home at Ardmore that he believed his son was demented. The father is a former vice president of the N. Y. N. H. & H. Ry.

The young man had not been well since he suffered a nervous breakdown while serving in the navy during the war, he said, and later he had been an inmate of the Pennsylvania Hospital for mental and nervous diseases at Philadelphia.

It was pointed out by police if Mr. Henry had been the victim of a murderer he undoubtedly would have attempted to scratch some message to his relatives either on paper in his pocket or on the tree. No such message was found.

Large stones were also lying on the ground within easy reach, with which he might have tried to break the chain but there was no evidence such an effort had been made.

Two state police kept a lonely vigil over the body last night which was not moved in order that no possible clue might be destroyed. The condition of the body indicated the young man had been dead since shortly after his disappearance on August 1.

Around the tree was a beaten path about 15 feet in diameter which told a pathetic tale of the hours and perhaps days spent by the unhappy man pacing at the end of his chain.

The chain around his neck was fastened by a Yale lock while the end of it was looped about a giant tree. He was identified by means of cards and letters in the pockets of his clothing.

The big air cruiser headed directly into a northwest course, passing over Dallas, 30 miles away, almost 45 minutes after her departure from Fort Worth.

Wilson, Dale, Mooney, Betts. Sitting: Shugrue, W. McClure, Smith, Neale, Rowles, P. McClure.

Johnstown comes here with a very good record. In four games they have amassed a total of 355 to their opponents' 7. The Reed machine came out of Saturday's game pretty well shaken up but before Saturday's contest they should be ready to line up in good physical shape.

THREE UNBEATEN
FOOTBALL TEAMS
PLAY TOMORROW

New York, Oct. 24. (INS.)—Three of the East's leading football teams, which neither have been beaten nor tied, will appear on New York grid-irons tomorrow. They are Lafayette and Washington and Jefferson, which will meet at the Yankee stadium and Williams, which plays Columbia. Another headline game tomorrow will bring together Centre College and West Virginia at the polo grounds.

W. and J. and Centre will work out on the local gridirons this afternoon, the former arriving in town this morning with the praying Colonels due to appear a short time later. Lafayette is coming by special train from Easton, Pa., tomorrow morning.

The meeting between Centre and West Virginia is of particular interest because it was West Virginia that furnished the Colonels their first stepping stone to fame four years ago. On that occasion Centre astounded the football world by defeating the mountaineers shortly after the latter had run wild through Princeton.

Ontario, Canada
Votes to Remain
in Dry Columns

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 24. (INS.)—By a majority expected to total more than 40,000 Ontario today indicated it has sustained its temperance act in the election yesterday. The vote early today stood for government control of liquor sales 450,000; for continuance of the temperance act 491,000.

An early analysis of the heated battle shows that it was fight of the cities against the great farming and village populations. Urban Ontario voted heavily for control, but the farm vote overcame an early lead which the cities rolled up for the wet and swung the lead back in favor of temperance act which the province has had for eight years.

The vote indicated a marked change in public sentiment from the vote Ontario stands a vast dry wedge between provinces that are wet. Whether the dries will consider the victory impressive enough to pursue the campaign, with the intention of bringing back other provinces which have returned to the wet ranks, was not known early today.

Two years ago. The large majority of 400,000 which the dries compiled in 1922 was greatly reduced, indicating that wet votes had been won by the prospect of American tourists attracted by liquor sales and by the argument that liquor taxes would help reduce the $8,000,000 deficit which confronts the provincial government.

The women's vote was one of the surprises of the election. It gave the dries a majority, but an exceedingly small one. The border areas rolled up their usual large majorities for the wets as did the leading cities; Toronto, London, Ottawa, Hamilton, and a number of others known to thousands of American tourists.

Johnstown Hi Has Won
Every Game, Amassing
355 Points, Enemy 7

Clearfield High's grid squad will take the field against Johnstown High at 2:30 tomorrow. The game has been set for 2:30 so as to give Johnstown a chance to get an early start for home.

Johnstown comes here with their best team in years. To date four games have been played and won, the flood city boys amassing 355 points to their opponents' 7. The scores being: Mt. Union 4 to 115; Marysville 0 to 100; Hollidaysburg 0 to 52; Somerset 7 to 88. A veteran team is under Coach Jolly, who is a new man at Johnstown, replacing Snell of State fame. Vonhunen and Shaffer, quarter and end have been playing fine games and they do not intend letting Clearfield dim their lustre in the least.

Coach Reed has been driving his proteges thru a hard week of practice with one scrimmage. Wednesday the first team met the second team for about thirty minutes and

Reserve Officers Ass'n Met Here Thursday Eve.
For Election Of Officers

The Reserve Officers' Association met at Clearfield Thursday evening, with dinner at the Dimeling, and business meeting later at the new home of the American Legion Post. In the absence of Colonel Wilgus of DuBois, Lieutenant Moulthrop of DuBois, acted as temporary chairman.

Last night was the time for the election of officers, and the following were chosen to serve until next fall: President, Lieutenant Moulthrop of DuBois; Vice President, Lieutenant Leitzinger, of Clearfield; Secretary, Breth of Clearfield; Treasurer, Major Brown of Burnside. Lieutenants Daley and Wood of Clearfield, and Ide of DuBois were elected to serve on the executive Council.

Captain Pickett, of DuBois, outlined to the officers the plans of the government with reference to the reserves—the desire to add to the reserve with well trained and well qualified men. He stated that examining boards would be established in DuBois and nearby towns offering facilities of examination to candidates for commissions and promotion, saving them the now expensive trip to Altoona or Pittsburgh.

Major Brown, who attended camp at Carlisle during the past summer spoke of the possibilities of these summer camps, and of the desirability of all men attending who find it possible to do so.

The next meeting of the association will be held in DuBois on November 19th.

TO BUILD W. 3D AVE. SEWER
Chairman Adams of the Sewer Department of Council has started a crew of men to work building the West Third-avenue sewer. This is a very much needed improvement as the section to be served has developed very rapidly the past year.

IDEA OF A HOLIDAY
NEXT WEDNESDAY IS FITTING AND PROPER

Dedication of the Legion
Home Will Be First
Memorial to Soldiers
In This County.

FINISHED PROGRAM

The different committees in charge of the dedication, as a memorial to Clearfield county veterans of all wars, of the recently purchased home of the American Legion in Clearfield, are working like beavers getting plans completed for the dedicatory exercises, which are scheduled for Wednesday, October 29th.

It is the desire of John Shade Post that by reason of the patriotic and sentimental purpose of the occasion the day should be made a holiday in Clearfield county. To that end Judge Chaso has agreed with them and acceded to the request of those in charge by issuing a proclamation, in which all other county officials have joined asking that our people lay aside business cares for the afternoon of the 29th and join with the Legion in this dedication. Such action would be eminently fitting and none should refrain, especially in view of the fact that this will be the first distinctly county memorial to be dedicated to Clearfield county's heroic sons anywhere in the county.

The completed program of exercises will be available in a few days and will be well worth while. In addition to the American Legion Posts of this section and all war veterans service men, the veterans of all wars gold star mothers, county and bureau officials and other different fraternal organizations have all been invited to attend and participate in the exercises and ceremonies on that occasion and a large crowd is expected to be present.

Many men prominent in the affairs of the American Legion in State and Nation have been invited and will be present and assist in the ceremonies which begin promptly at 3 o'clock. A spacious platform will be erected about the porch and spacious lawn in front of the home and this platform will be occupied by the Gold Star Mothers, C. A. R., Guests of Honor, Commander of the Spanish American War Veterans, Judge Chase Judge Bell Burgess Kittelberger, President of Council, Rosser and other dignitaries.

The town will be profusely decorated, while two big electric flood lights will be installed to light up the front of the home and the grounds during the evening reception which opens at 7 o'clock.

five tallies were scored a diversified attack being used.

The squad appears free from all physical disabilities and should not enter the game at any disadvantage. A new shift has been effected. P. McClure and Bowes being ousted for Rowles and Betts. The former two have been away off in their work while Rowles and Betts are both showing capabilities that deserve them a varsity berth.

The probable lineup for the contest will be Davis at Center; Rowles and Dale at guard; Mann and Thurston at tackle; Mooney and Johnston at end, with Capt. Wilson, Mitchell, Barrie and Betts in the backfield and McLaughlin, Snyder, Smith Shugrue and Bowes ready for the backfield, while P. McClure, Hughes, Withrow, Neale, Lowell and N. McClure on deck for line service.

Quite a lot of spirit and enthusiasm is being stirred up at the local school by the students. The different rooms are cooperating so as to form a better and more solid cheering section.

Thursday morning a local business man spoke to the students and his talk started the "ball roll", but it must be kept in motion by others if the spirit is to continue. So if every loyal fan does his best in the form of encouragement the team will not fall down if they can help it.

Remember it starts at 2:30, bring your horn and toot and root all you please but don't kick over the traces and be unsportsmanlike.

Pennsylvania Lutheran Pastors Demand Church Action On The Marriage Of Divorced To A Divorce

By HAZEL MACDONALD
N. S. Special Correspondent
Chicago, Oct. 23.—The age-old
question of divorce and re-marriage
is for discussion at today's session of the biennial convention of the Lutheran church in America.
Bringing forth an appeal for a ruling from the church for guidance of its clergymen asked to participate at ceremonies where one of the contracting parties have divorced.
The present church code holds that Lutheran clergyman may re-
marry the innocent party to a divorce
on the one ground recognized
in the new testament—that of infidelity could be no misinterpretation.

The responsibility of determining
which is the innocent party is "rest great for the individual clergyman to assume," Dr. George W. Nicely, of Hanover, Pa., President of the West
Pennsylvania synod, where the agitation for a new ruling originated, said
today.
Besides, as Dr. George Albert Getty,
another member of the West Pennsylvania synod, pointed out, while the present rule by limitation condemns it,
it does not definitely forbid a Lutheran clergyman from performing a marriage ceremony for persons who have been divorced. "So some of them will
and some of them won't. There is no uniformity of action. If a divorced person can't get married in his own
parish, the chances are that the pastor of the next parish will accommodate him and that the person so accommodated will transfer his membership to the parish of the more
obliging pastor."

The aim of the West Pennsylvania
synod in the matter was set forth by
Rev. G. E. Bowersox, Shrewsbury,
Pa. It contemplates:
First: A National law making it
necessary to state on the divorce decree the grounds on which the divorce
was obtained, and
Second: A church ruling setting

forth under exactly what conditions
remarriage may be performed by a Lutheran clergyman.

Main Like Soot.

On Sunday, November 9, 1819, a
dense black cloud descended on Montreal, according to Doctor Atherton's history. The cloud deposited a substance that looked and tasted like soot. On the following Tuesday after a dark morning of gloom, with the sun
clouded at times greenish black, pitch
black, dingy orange and blood red,
so that some thought Montreal was going to be another Pompeii, and that Mount Royal would erupt. At three in the afternoon rain fell again of
the same sooty character, amid fearful thunder and lightning. At four the summit of the steeple of Notre Dame church was struck by lightning. Before the fire was extinguished the cross fell in pieces. As the sooty substance flowed along the gutters it carried a dense foam like soapuds.

More to the Point.

An enterprising Montreal coal dealer
carries on his stallionery the slogan:
"We are all black business, but we treat you white." A customer who had just received a statement for his winter supply of coal at the trifling price
of $22 per ton, sent a check in payment, accompanied by the suggestion that the slogan be changed to: "We are all dirty business, but we clean you
good."—Forbes Magazine.

ROUND OAK PIPELESS HEATING SYSTEM

What Does the Other Fellow Say?

When you have a Round Oak Pipeless
Heating System in your home, there are no
more chilly corners and rooms but all is cozy and snug. The temperature of the cellar is not changed; vegetables keep beautifully in our open cellar. We find it very convenient to start a little wood fire to take the chill from the whole house. We heated six rooms with four tons of coal last winter. From consumer letter.

We have ten good sized rooms in the house,
nine foot ceilings, and I would not trade my Round Oak Pipeless Heating System for a
hot water or steam system if you would put it in for nothing. What surprises me most is that the temperature does not vary more than 2 degrees in any room downstairs and not more than 5 degrees upstairs. I used
less than five tons of coke last winter.—
From consumer letter.

will justify, and, we say without hesitation, compliment your investigation. We guarantee the service and satisfaction rendered.

Sunshine Air-Tight Heaters Will Heat Your Home Right

We are getting a lot of praise about these Sunshine Air-Tight Heaters. They're a double heater and are so made that every possible atom of heat is gotten out of the fuel you use.

And there's a finish to these heaters that does away with the old idea of having to blacken the heater. We have them in Blue, Black, Brown, Green and Gray. The nickel work is so done that it will stay bright and also relieve the housewife of that odious work.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

Cambria county people are asking for more State Police or a separate organization to enforce the dry law, alleging Gov. Pinchot has ordered the State Police to center their efforts on law violators ahead of every other species of crime. In support of their theory they cite the recent series of robberies in their section, perpetrators of which have escaped detection and arrest. They refer to the attempted robbery of paymaster of Windber Silica Sand Co. Robbery of paymaster of Dexter Coal Co. near Ashville. Robbery of First National Bank in Bakerton. Robbery of Penn Traffic store in Johnstown. Robbery and murder at concrete bridge near Colver. Robbery of Citizens National Bank at Bolivar. Also many other crimes of lesser importance.

More than one-fourth of the student body of 3443 men and women at the Pennsylvania State College are affiliated with the Presbyterian Church, according to a religious census just completed by the college registrar. There are twenty-five different denominations noted by students in their religious preferences. The highest in student numbers follow:

Presbyterian, 831; Methodist, 769; Lutheran, 455; Roman Catholic, 365; Baptist, 253; Episcopal, 194; Baptist, 139; Hebrew, 102; Evangelical, 82; Friends, 52; and United Brethren, 47.

Martin W. Littleton, noted New York lawyer, it is needless to add, is for La Follette for President. He is a vocal brickbat he hurled at third party candidates in an address made at a recent meeting of the American Defense Society in New York. In speaking of the two Senators, he said:

distinction of being the only two men who ever offered themselves for the first offices of the country who hoisted the white flag in times of war and the red flag in times of peace.

"When they did emerge, they did so somewhat without a country and wholly without a party, for they had forfeited their claims upon both."

That immigration to the United States has been effectively curbed by new immigration regulations is indicated by the first report of their operation made by Commissioner of Immigration W. W. Husband. It shows that during July, when the new quotas went into force, only 11,661 immigrants were admitted into the United States, and that of this number only 588 were charged to the recognized quotas. During the same month 8,493 aliens returned to their native land, thus revealing that the net gain in citizenship from the flow of immigrants was slightly more than 3,000. This is regarded as remarkable by immigration officials, since the rush of aliens to this country heretofore reached its highest peak in July.

COOLIDGE'S WAR ON HIGH TAXES

All taxes laid against productive enterprises are paid by the ultimate purchaser. Taxes are a legitimate cost item, and the selling price of any finished article is based on the total of all cost items, plus a profit on each one. The consumer pays this profit on all the taxes that figure in the cost, in addition to the taxes.

In striking at high taxes, President Coolidge is laying the axe at the root of one of the chief causes of high prices. He is reducing the cost of living. He is shortening the spread between producer and consumer. He is enabling the farmer to get a bigger share of the consumer's dollar.

It is true that measured by the figures on the tax receipt, national taxes are now much less than State and local taxes, and that the President is powerless to reduce the latter. But national taxes are grievous in themselves. Moreover, the Federal taxes are to a great extent levied against industrial, financial, transportation and utility enterprises, and individuals engaged therein, thus directly entering into costs that are pyramided and passed on. The poor man who thinks he pays no income tax is mistaken. He helps pay some of the biggest income taxes, if he buys anything at all. The farmer helps pay them when he buys a piece of machinery or any manufactured article. The working man helps pay them when he buys food or clothing for his family. Everybody pays.

The national debt and the cost of operating the Government are the causes of the Federal taxes. The only way to get rid of the national debt is to pay it. The only way to reduce the cost of government is to economize. President Coolidge is doing both, with amazing success.

CEASE FIRING

By FLORENCE DAVIES

"The war is over, but army keeps on fighting," is a headline which appeared in the paper the other day.

The story, as one might guess, referred to the war in China, which, like all Chinese wars, was carried on to some extent at least, on something of a comic opera basis.

Wars in China have been frequent, but never very bloody. The Chinese at heart are a peaceable people, and rather welcome a good sound rain storm which is the signal for the cessation of hostilities.

Who wants to go out in the rain for the fun of fighting?

But in the recent scrimmage the Chinese kept whangung away, (not very fatally, it is true) long after a truce had been declared, just because some one forgot to tell them to stop.

It was just a piece of carelessness, a slip, which kept the good natured Chinese soldiers firing long after the signal should have been given to stop.

But it's something worse than carelessness, which keeps a good many people that you and I know busily fighting long after a quarrel is supposed to be over.

It's a great thing to know when to stop. It's a great thing to be able to stop a fight and go on with the next thing.

There are many people who never learn that a war is over, whether it's a national or an international, or a personal war.

It has taken the north and south to learn that the war is over.

It's the same with personal quarrels.

Perhaps as long as we are human and are limited by human frailties and failings we will fall into difficulties with each other. But if there must be these mimic battles in our families and churches, our clubs and offices, wouldn't it be a great thing to learn how to quit when the thing is over?

But some people insist upon harping grudges, and treasuring up old hurts. They seem to think that some imaginary quality known as pride or honor is at stake, whereas, the true honor would lie in being big enough to hold out the hand after a misunderstanding and saying, "We were both a little wrong; let's forget it and go on."

There are actually good English patriots who have never heard that the Revolutionary war is over; rabid Americans who still think that the boys are just about to charge right on Bunker Hill; neighbors who are still worrying over 60-year-old boundary line quarrels; families who have not forgotten yesterday's squabble, all of them quite as foolish as those comic opera Chinese soldiers who went on fighting after the war was over.

It's a great thing to stop when you are through, whether it's talking or fighting.

ISN'T THIS YOUR PROBLEM?

"I intend to save money every month but somehow it just melts away and at the end of the month there's nothing left to save."

Why not reverse things and take out a fixed sum on pay day and put it to work in an interest bearing account at this bank? Live on the rest of your salary and you'll experience the self respect and pleasure of getting ahead.

In other words, pay yourself first. It makes a world of difference in one's prosperity account.

CLEARFIELD TRUST CO.

Curwensville's Cow Column

A Curwensville Council of Republican Women will be organized in the American Legion Rooms, Curwensville, Friday evening, October 24th at 7:30. Every Republican woman is invited to attend and join this organization.

Work has been resumed on the finishing up of the new concrete Anderson creek bridge. The underpinnings at the second or south span has been removed and the structure will be gone over and floated to a smoothness that will look something like workmanship, on the walls which hedge each side of the flooring. The main work on the main bridge was perfectly strong and durable enough, but the finishing was something horrible to an artistic eye, and Council refused to accept the bridge until these defects were remedied, which no doubt will be accomplished within the next few days.

Misses Maude and Blanche Graham former public school teachers in this bailiwick, now of Altoona, spent several days of this week visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rhodes, George street. Both young ladies have many warm friends in Curwensville who are always pleased to welcome them in their midst.

Little Violet Confer is confined to her home this week suffering from a sprained ankle, received while coming down a pair of steps at one of the public school buildings. The little lady is lamenting the accident not so much from the pain but from the fact that she is compelled to remain away from her school.

Charlie Addleman has purchased a corner of the William Durnel lot on Bloomington avenue and will erect a garage building thereon, which is sadly needed over that side of town.

Tensie and R. K. Way have the street front of their stationery store painted, which adds greatly to its appearance. Now if the two buildings were to receive a fresh pressing of paint, that block would look rather presentable to people from a distance who pass through the town daily.

Five birthdays in one family in one week is something that does not occur very often in a community, yet this is just what did happen in the family of Jack Dallute this week.

W. S. Williams, father of Mrs. C. D. Doverspike, New Bethlehem, met with sudden death from a fall from a building on Tuesday on which he was working. He was aged 76 years, Mrs. Doverspike left immediately upon receipt of the sad news for her old home. The body will be held until Monday, pending the arrival of relatives from California, and will be buried on that day.

A trip around among a number of Curwensville merchants yesterday caused us to invoke the sentiment that business in their several lines is on the increase over that of the previous month. Especially are fall and winter goods in demand, and the recent cold snap of the present week, has caused many to change from light to a heavier grade of wearing apparel. The hardware line is especially brisk as many families were compelled to purchase new heating and cooking stoves and accessories.

Mr. Brady recovered consciousness shortly after reaching the hospital. His injuries were found to consist of a broken rib and severe contusions about the body, while he also had a bad cut on the back of his head. An X-ray picture was taken of the head injury, the extent of which will be determined following an examination of that picture.

Mr. Brady was reported as resting comfortably at noon today.

MARKET STREET SEWER BUILDING ENDED FOR YEAR

Foreman W. H. Holt and his crew, having completed the big 24-inch Market street sewer to a point in front of Miss Ella Shaw's residence on the east side of Front street, has halted the building of the sewer at that point for this year. The sewer is intended as a surface water drain, designed to relieve the long-continued unsatisfactory condition in the Fourth street section, but on account of the depth of the sewer and the expensive nature of its construction Council was compelled to order a halt in its construction at this time because its cost was exceeding the estimates.

The section of sewer completed is about 548 feet long. The entire length of the sewer is approximately 1900 feet, but the most expensive part of it is now laid, as it was necessary for Foreman Holt and his crew to tunnel across Market street near the river, a distance of 189 feet, while the sewer for its entire length was tunneled with the exception of the needed openings every 25 or 30 feet.

The work was done without interference with traffic or the shade trees along the High School property under which the sewer passes. It was dangerous work on account of the depth of the sewer and the character of the ground through which it was constructed, but not a man was injured during the work. The sewer was built by the Clearfield Electric Supply Company under the supervision of the Clearfield Electric Supply Company. Wants to Know What Kills Her.

There had been an unusually severe thunderstorm during the night, and old Mrs. Jarvie, for the first time in her life, slept through it. As a rule, she rose, lit her candle, dressed herself and sat in a chair on a rubber mat. Rather than being thankful that she was not aware of the storm, the old lady waxed warm with wrath the following morning when she heard of it. "Mercy me! I should think I was in a boardinghouse," she said, "if I was among my own folks in my own home. What's there one of my children or grandchildren that thought enough of me to wake me? I might have been struck by lightning in my sleep and never known what killed me."—Every body's News.

Women Speakers Volunteer Services To Campaign For Republican Party; Every Walk In Life Is Represented

MISS ELEANOR P. BARKER, MRS. HARRIET TAYLOR UPTON, MRS. CHARLES W. SEWELL.

Women speakers from every walk in life have volunteered their services to campaign for the Republican party. They are carrying the message of the achievements of Coolidge and Dawes and the Republican party from coast to coast, some addressing as many as four audiences a day.

Mrs. Florence Riddick, who is routing the women speakers from the national headquarters, Chicago, has enrolled in the neighborhood of 200 speakers, while Helen Varick Boswell, of the speakers' bureau, Eastern headquarters, New York City, reports more than 150 active speakers.

A flying squadron of speakers is being sent into states where the contest is the hottest, and reports show that many a convert is being won as a result of their oratory.

Mrs. Guy P. Gannett, National Committee woman from Maine, says the flying squadron sent into Maine did much to swing the women's vote in the state election. An address delivered by women speakers the fact is being driven home that there are 25,000,000 women eligible to vote in November and every effort should be made to see that these women vote.

There will be 2,782,475 young women eligible to vote, who will assume the duties of citizenship for the first time this year.

Mrs. Upton, who is the principal speaker at a series of campaign political schools conducted in the state of Missouri this month, led the Republican women of the country for four years. She was appointed vice-chairman of the Republican National Committee in the 1920 campaign, which office she held until the Cleveland convention last June, when she was succeeded by Mrs. Alvin T. Hart, present leader.

Mrs. Sewell, the wife of a real dirt farmer, is well known through the west and middle west for her work with farm women. She is heading the squadron of women speakers, which is carrying the message of the Republican party to women living in the rural districts.

While Miss Barker has never been an aspirant or candidate for political office she has always been an active worker in the interests of legislation beneficial to women and children and for the upholding of the principles of the Republican party. She is a practicing attorney in Indianapolis.

PENNSY-GRAMS

Stroudsburg, Pa., Oct. 23 (INS).—Carl Cunningham, chief engineer of Pecono Manor, near here, was shot to death last night in a pistol battle with a bandit he discovered robbing a cottage near Pecono Inn.

Attracted by a flickering light in the cottage, known to be unoccupied, Cunningham and two employees of the Inn went to investigate. As they entered four shots rang out and Cunningham fell mortally wounded.

Superficial Thinkers.

A group of clubmen were talking and the subject of dreams came up. Presently one said: "I remember reading of a dream so vivid that it was fatal to the dreamer. A man dreamed that he was living in the days of the French Revolution, and was one of the victims led to the guillotine. When his turn came and the big knife descended, the shock to his nervous system was so great that it killed him; he never woke up." This brought out various exclamations, such as "Most remarkable!" etc. but not one of the listeners discovered the flaw in his story. He waited a few minutes, and then said: "Well, boys, you're a smart lot, I must say, to swallow that yarn. How in the world could anyone know what that man had been dreaming about if he never woke up?"

Appreciation.

The artist was proud of his latest canvas: it was a futuristic painting, supposed to represent a Dutch landscape. He made arrangements to exhibit it in the art museum, and beneath it hung a printed notice bearing the words: "Do not touch with cane or umbrella." When he went back to secure the return of his painting, he found that an appreciative boy had added to the sign the following postscript: "Take an ax."—Everybody's Magazine.

Washington, Oct. 22 (INS)—A complete review of all disallowed claims in the Veterans Bureau, amounting to more than 500,000 will be carried out on an extensive plan as speedily as possible, Director Frank L. Hines announced today.

Several weeks ago the Disabled American Veterans, through National Commander Frank J. Irwin, brought the matter up to Director Hines as the most urgent proposition before the bureau and an investigation developed there are 533,106 of these disallowed claims. Irwin believes that many of the disabled men have not received benefits either because they became discouraged by delays or else are unfamiliar with the Reed-Johnson bill which has many liberalizing clauses that would include many men who were barred under previous laws.

General Hines has assured the Veterans' Organization that he will continue to expand the force having this review work in charge until the task can be completed within a reasonable time.

Legality Of Printing Income Tax Returns Is Not Firmly Established

Washington, Oct. 24. (INS.)—The question of whether it is or is not legal for newspapers to publish individual income tax returns, thrown open to public inspection under the new revenue law, was left suspended in mid air today by the unwillingness or inability of government officials to issue a definite ruling on the matter.

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon and some of his principal aides at the department expressed the opinion that publication of the returns is illegal, but other treasury officials held different views and expressed the private opinion that the revenue law of 1924 permitted the publication of income tax paid.

In the face of this conflict of opinion, the department of justice marked time and did nothing except to announce that "in due course, a conclusion would be reached."

Meanwhile, solicitor General James M. Beck issued a formal statement the conclusion of which stated:

"In the meantime, responsibility for such publication must rest with those who in any way publish the details of individual incomes."

The Progress has available today a list of income taxes paid by prominent and wealthy citizens. It will refrain from printing them. First, for the reason that the legality of such a course is questioned and no good purpose is to be served by making a test. Second, because we believe that there is no warrant for such an invasion of the private affairs of individuals. People who want to see what taxes another paid would just as eagerly "peek" into another's pocketbook or "eave-drop" on a private conversation. Only when the income return of an individual is open to question should there be the privilege of publicity and not merely for the purpose of satisfying a minority which insists on poking its nose into another man's business.

What The Candidates Are Doing Today

PRESIDENT GIVES A FINAL ACCOUNTING AND OUTLINES HIS VIEWS ON ISSUES

Washington, Oct. 23.—President Coolidge set forth tonight policies of administration under which he proposed that the government will "maintain peace, promote economy, provide a protective tariff, assist the farmers, leave the people in possession of their property and maintain the integrity of the courts."

In the last extended address he ever made before election and the comprehensive he has delivered in his speech of acceptance of the public nomination, the President declared his stand on practically every phase of Government affairs. He discussed campaign issues, in some instances for the first time.

Summarizing the administration's program, which he said had "brought an era of more than average prosperity," the President called attention that despite the "natural supposition that every well-wisher of the country would be anxious to maintain the present established order of things," there are now proposed "at least two of the most revolutionary changes" government ownership of transportation and limitation of the powers of the supreme court.

Public ownership, he described as a "most perilous undertaking, both to the welfare of business and the independence of the people. If powers of the supreme court were limited as proposed, he said, "the historian would close the chapter with the comment that the people had shown they were incapable of self-government and the American republic had proved a failure."

Mr. Coolidge said further reduction in federal taxes was possible on the basis of the estimated Government budget for next year, and he outlined as his "common sense" method of taxation:

"Getting all we can out of the rich by making the rates moderate and stimulating business to provide work and increase the earnings of the poor."

In foreign affairs the President promised co-operation in the interest of peace; declared for constitutional

FAMILY OF FOUR IS WIPED OUT IN A GRADE CROSSING ACCIDENT NEAR QUAKERTOWN ON THE READING RY.

Quakertown, Pa., Oct. 24. (INS.)—A family of four, two of them children were wiped out last night when an observation train bearing officials of the Reading railway struck and demolished their motor car at a grade crossing at Shelly Station, near here, scarcely 300 feet from their home.

The victims are Warren Dewees, 26; Mrs. Warren Dewees, 25, Gladys,

3, and Dorothy, 8 months.

The mother and the two children were killed outright while the father died two hours later at a Bethlehem hospital. The car was of the sedan type and it is believed the occupants failed to hear the approaching train. Their bodies were found beneath the twisted ruins of the car which was dragged 200 feet by the train.

MONTREAL PUT 4 TO DEATH TODAY FOR BANK HOLD-UP

Montreal, Ont. Oct. 24. (INS.)—Amid the greatest secrecy and while a crowd of thousands fought with police outside, four murderers of a bank messenger in the $142,000 Hochelaga bank holdup last April, were hanged here today.

The four who died were Giuseppe Serafini, Antony Frank, Frank Gambino and Louis Morl. A fifth, who was to have been executed with them, Michael Valentino, was given a reprieve by the cabinet at the eleventh hour.

Louis Morl, leader of the bandits, and once a Montreal detective, wrote two letters as the hour approached for the march to the gallows. One was addressed to his children, the other to the newspapers. The second letter read:

"To my Creator:
"I offer you my death in the spirit of reparation for all the sins of my life. I offer you lastly my death as an act of perfect love—as a last act of love on earth. I pardon all as I implore the Holy Virgin to appease the anger of God and to preserve me from eternal damnation."

Tony Frank Long has been recognized as an underworld leader in Montreal and Gambino was known as his Lieutenant. Morl was a member of the Montreal detective force for many years and was one of the greatest athletes in Canada.

Only two of the condemned men were present when Cleroux was killed; testimony showed. They were Morl and Serafini, but Frank and Gambino had taken an important part in the plotting of the robbery, it was shown.

PEDESTRIAN STRUCK BY AUTO ON NICHOLS STREET LAST NIGHT

W. S. Brady, of the produce firm of Brady & Brady, Coalport, was run down last evening by an automobile owned and operated by Robert Hadden, of Curwensville, and is now a patient at the Clearfield hospital suffering from severe cuts and bruises. The accident occurred about 7 o'clock last evening on Nichols street about twenty-five or thirty feet beyond the store of James Purdon at the corner of Weaver and Nichols streets. Hadden, with John Kelly, also of Curwensville, in his car, was traveling up Nichols street. Just after he had passed the Weaver street crossing Brady, who was crossing the street from the south to the north side, loomed up right in front of the car. Mr. Hadden says he did not see the pedestrian until Brady stepped directly in the path of the oncoming car. As he stepped in front of the car Mr. Brady turned almost facing it as he was struck and knocked down.

After striking the man the car was quickly brought to a stop by Mr. Hadden and he and Mr. Kelly ran to the Norristown, Pa., Oct. 23. (INS.)—William Mullen, 14-year-old Philadelphia boy, died at Montgomery Hospital Wednesday night as the result of a bullet wound received last Tuesday when he was accidentally shot by a bullet while he was in the Catholic school at Norristown, near here. The boy attended the school. Both Brother Cyril and the boy described the shooting as accidental. The instructor said he picked up the pistol from a desk not knowing it was loaded. It discharged and struck the boy seated nearby.

DA WES SWINGS INTO JERSEY; TO SPEAK IN BROOKLYN T'MOR'OW

By ALBERT BAENZIGER

Enroute To Newark, N. J., With General Dawes, Oct. 24.—General Charles G. Dawes, Republican nominee for vice president, was travelling today into that part of the United States chosen by all candidates as the final battle ground of their campaigns—the East.

After speaking this evening in Newark, the general will go to New York to address a big Brooklyn rally Saturday night.

The candidate came East under a serious handicap. His voice, which as a result of a cold, had been troubling him for several days, was worse today. Some of his party feared that unless he got a good rest over the week-end, it might prove an even worse handicap.

General Dawes recognized it himself. "I am glad I am not an opera singer," he told 3,000 persons in the Queen theatre in Wilmington, Del.

Speaking of radicalism, the nominee said that Russia was a horrible example of a nation ruled by demagogues, who seized power in a moment of stress and brought bloodshed and chaos in their wake.

A statesman is needed in such a time, he said, to stand firmly for the things that are right until peoples cease being mobs and regain their reason.

"Such a man is Coolidge," Gen. Dawes told his listeners. "We know that at this time we are too close to danger to take a chance."

"There is a class of citizens that awaits the great issue and that is the American woman. There are no political trimmers among the American women."

TAMMANY SUPPORTS DAVIS IN STRUGGLE FOR N. Y. STATE

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON

Aboard Davis' Special, Enroute to New York, Oct. 24.—The Democratic supreme hope for victory in the 1924 presidential race was centered on New York today as John W. Davis hurried eastward to close his campaign with a drive to carry the Empire state. Due to reach New York City late this afternoon, Davis will devote the next seven days to campaigning within its five boroughs.

One exception will be made—Monday when he will cross the Hudson for a sortie into New Jersey. His daily itinerary will include from three to seven speeches with visits into every nook and corner of the metropolis.

In his closing drive, Davis will have the hearty co-operation of Tammany Hall and its leader, George Olvany. This plan of action, in fact, was decided upon by the nominee only after it was earnestly urged by Olvany and other New York state leaders, who declared he had an even chance of winning the state by rolling up a big majority in New York City. The climax to the drive will be reached on the night of Saturday, November 1, when Davis will close his campaign with an address in Carnegie Hall.

No other "sound and practical" policy in foreign affairs has been presented, Mr. Coolidge declared, adding that "we have been willing to assume the responsibility for leading the nation and the world in this direction without first seeking through a costly, futile and unconstitutional referendum to find out whether it would be popular."

In agriculture, the President said, he was ready to open the investigation into farming conditions he had proposed as a means of determining a legislative program of aid. This had been withheld temporarily, he said, at the advice of farm leaders, lest the investigation become involved in partisan politics.

Recalling benefits he said had accrued from the existing tariff law, Mr. Coolidge insisted that without a protective tariff "American industry cannot exist, American wages cannot

YALE GRAD IS FOUND DEAD, CHAINED TO A TREE IN MOUNTAINS NEAR WILLIAMSPORT

Chain Around Neck Was
Fastened by Yale Lock;
Path About Tree Mute
Evidence of Torture

PROBABLY SUICIDE

Williamsport, Pa., Oct. 24. (INS.)—A well worn path leading from the old log road to the spot where the body of Henry H. McHenry, Yale graduate and former school teacher, of Ardmore, Pa., was found chained to a tree in the woodlands of Green Mountain, near here yesterday, forms the only clue today that might indicate to the authorities that the man was the victim of a fiendish murderer.

Because of the fact the woodlands are little frequented, the path at first was regarded highly significant and a gruesome theory was formed that the man may have been kidnapped by some person who bound him to the tree and then kept a close watch on him while he made frantic efforts to escape.

The path yielded no further clue, however, and because of other facts surrounding the finding of the body, it is believed a verdict of suicide will be brought in today by Coroner Geo. L. Schneider.

This suicide theory gained ground last night when the brokenhearted father of the man, E. H. McHenry, telephoned the authorities here from his home at Ardmore that he believed his son was demented. The father is a former vice president of the N. Y. N. H. & H. Ry.

The young man had not been well since he suffered a nervous breakdown while serving in the navy during the war, he said, and later he had been an inmate of the Pennsylvania Hospital for mental and nervous diseases at Philadelphia.

It was pointed out by police if Mr. Henry had been the victim of a murderer he undoubtedly would have attempted to scratch some message to his relatives either on paper in his pocket or on the tree. No such message was found.

Large stones were also lying on the ground within easy reach, with which he might have tried to break the chain but there was no evidence such an effort had been made.

Two state police kept a lonely vigil over the body last night which was not moved in order that no possible clue might be destroyed. The condition of the body indicated the young man had been dead since shortly after his disappearance on August 1.

Around the tree was a beaten path about 15 feet in diameter which told a pathetic tale of the hours and perhaps days spent by the unhappy man pacing at the end of his chain.

The chain around his neck was fastened by a Yale lock while the end of it was looped about a giant tree. He was identified by means of cards and letters in the pockets of his clothing.

Shenandoah Enroute For Home Today; Lakehurst To See Her In Morning

Fort Worth, Tex. Oct. 24. (INS.)

Scheduled to try for speed records on the home stretch of her 7,000 transcontinental flight, the navy dirigible Shenandoah cast off from her mooring mast here shortly before eleven o'clock this morning on the 1300 mile flight to Lakehurst, N. J.

The big air cruiser headed directly into a northwest course, passing over Dallas, 30 miles away, almost 45 minutes after her departure from Fort Worth.

be paid, the American standard of living cannot be maintained."

Clearfield High's grid team thrives up against the rusty Johnstown High squad here Saturday. They are: Standing — (From left to right) Coach McKinstry, Mitchell, Barrie, Hughes, Coach Steele, Thurston, Davis, Snyder, Johnston, Head Coach Reed. Kneeling: Withrow, Bowes, Mann, Capt. Wilson, Dale, Mooney, Betts. Sitting: Shrugue, W. McClure, Smith, Neale, Rowles, P. McClure.

Johnstown comes here with a very good record. In four games they have amassed a total of 355 to their opponents' 7. The Reed machine came out of Saturday's game pretty well shaken up but before Saturday's contest they should be ready to line up in good physical shape.

THREE UNBEATEN FOOTBALL TEAMS PLAY TOMORROW

New York, Oct. 24. (INS.)—Three of the East's leading football teams, which neither have been beaten nor tied, will appear on New York grid-irons tomorrow. They are Lafayette and Washington and Jefferson, which will meet at the Yankee stadium and Williams, which plays Columbia. Another headline game tomorrow will bring together Centre College and West Virginia at the polo grounds. W. and J. and Centre will work out on the local gridirons this afternoon, the former arriving in town this morning with the praying Colonels due to appear a short time later. Lafayette is coming by special train from Easton, Pa., tomorrow morning. The meeting between Centre and West Virginia is of particular interest because it was West Virginia that furnished the Colonels their first stepping stone to fame four years ago. On that occasion Centre astounded the football world by defeating the mountaineers shortly after the latter had run wild through Princeton.

ONTARIO, CANADA VOTES TO REMAIN IN DRY COLUMNS

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 24. (INS.)—By a majority expected to total more than 40,000 Ontario today indicated it has sustained its temperance act in the election yesterday. The vote early today stood for government control of liquor sales 450,000; for continuance of the temperance act 491,000.

An early analysis of the heated battle shows that it was fight of the cities against the great farming and village populations. Urban Ontario voted heavily for control, but the farm vote overcame an early lead which the cities rolled up for the wets and swung the lead back in favor of temperance act which the province has had for eight years.

The vote indicated a marked change in public sentiment from the vote Ontario stands a vast dry wedge between provinces that are wet. Whether the dries will consider the victory impressive enough to pursue the campaign, with the intention of bringing back other provinces which have returned to the wet ranks, was not known early today.

Two years ago. The large majority of 400,000 which the dries compiled in 1922 was greatly reduced, indicating that wet votes had been won by the prospect of American tourists attracted by liquor sales and by the argument that liquor taxes would help reduce the $8,000,000 deficit which confronts the provincial government.

The women's vote was one of the surprises of the election. It gave the dries a majority, but an exceedingly small one. The border areas rolled up their usual large majorities for the wets as did the leading cities; Toronto, London, Ottawa, Hamilton, and a number of others known to thousands of American tourists.

Johnstown Hi Has Won Every Game, Amassing 355 Points, Enemy 7

Clearfield High's grid squad will take the field against Johnstown High at 2:30 tomorrow. The game has been set for 2:30 so as to give Johnstown a chance to get an early start for home.

Johnstown comes here with their best team in years. To date four games have been played and won, the flood city boys amassing 355 points to their opponents' 7. The scores being: Mt. Union 40 to 11; Marysville 0 to 100; Hollidaysburg 0 to 52; Somerset 7 to 88. A veteran team is under Coach Jolly, who is a new man at Johnstown, replacing Snell of State fame. Vonhunen and Shaffer, quarter and end have been playing fine games and they do not intend letting Clearfield dim their lustre in the least.

Coach Reed has been driving his proteges thru a hard week of practice with one scrimmage. Wednesday the first team met the second team for about thirty minutes and

Reserve Officers Ass'n Met Here Thursday Eve. For Election Of Officers

The Reserve Officers' Association met at Clearfield Thursday evening, with dinner at the Dimeling, and business meeting later at the new home of the American Legion Post. In the absence of Colonel Wilgus of DuBois, Lieutenant Moulthrop of DuBois, acted as temporary chairman.

Last night was the time for the election of officers, and the following were chosen to serve until next fall: President, Lieutenant Moulthrop of DuBois; Vice President, Lieutenant Leitzinger, of Clearfield; Secretary, Breth of Clearfield; Treasurer, Major Brown of Burnside. Lieutenants Daley and Wood of Clearfield, and Ide of DuBois were elected to serve on the executive Council.

Captain Pickett, of DuBois, outlined to the officers the plans of the government with reference to the reserves—the desire to add to the reserve with well trained and well qualified men. He stated that examining boards would be established in DuBois and nearby towns offering facilities of examination to candidates for commissions and promotion, saving them the now expensive trip to Altoona or Pittsburgh.

Major Brown, who attended camp at Carlisle during the past summer spoke of the possibilities of these summer camps, and of the desirability of all men attending who find it possible to do so.

The next meeting of the association will be held in DuBois on November 19th.

IDEA OF A HOLIDAY NEXT WEDNESDAY IS FITTING AND PROPER

Dedication of the Legion
Home Will Be First
Memorial to Soldiers
In This County.

FINISHED PROGRAM

The different committees in charge of the dedication, as a memorial to Clearfield county veterans of all wars, of the recently purchased home of the American Legion in Clearfield, are working like beavers getting plans completed for the dedicatory exercises, which are scheduled for Wednesday, October 29th.

It is the desire of John Shade Post that by reason of the patriotic and sentimental purpose of the occasion the day should be made a holiday in Clearfield county. To that end Judge Chaso has agreed with them and acceded to the request of those in charge by issuing a proclamation, in which all other county officials have joined asking that our people lay aside business cares for the afternoon of the 29th and join with the Legion in this dedication. Such action would be eminently fitting and none should refrain, especially in view of the fact that this will be the first distinctly county memorial to be dedicated to Clearfield county's heroic sons anywhere in the county.

The completed program of exercises will be available in a few days and will be well worth while. In addition to the American Legion Posts of this section and all war veterans service men, the veterans of all wars gold star mothers, county and bureau officials and other different fraternal organizations have all been invited to attend and participate in the exercises and ceremonies on that occasion and a large crowd is expected to be present.

Many men prominent in the affairs of the American Legion in State and Nation have been invited and will be present and assist in the ceremonies which begin promptly at 3 o'clock. A spacious platform will be erected about the porch and spacious lawn in front of the home and this platform will be occupied by the Gold Star Mothers, C. A. R., Guests of Honor, Commander of the Spanish American War Veterans, Judge Chase Judge Bell Burgess Kittelberger, President of Council, Rosser and other dignitaries.

The town will be profusely decorated, while two big electric flood lights will be installed to light up the front of the home and the grounds during the evening reception which opens at 7 o'clock.

five tallies were scored a diversified attack being used.

The squad appears free from all physical disabilities and should not enter the game at any disadvantage. A new shift has been effected. P. McClure and Bowes being ousted for Rowles and Betts. The former two have been away off in their work while Rowles and Betts are both showing capabilities that deserve them a varsity berth.

The probable lineup for the contest will be Davis at Center; Rowles and Dale at guard; Mann and Thurston at tackle; Mooney and Johnston at end, with Capt. Wilson, Mitchell, Barrie and Betts in the backfield and McLaughlin, Snyder, Smith Shugrue and Bowes ready for the backfield, while P. McClure, Hughes, Withrow, Neale, Lowell and N. McClure on deck for line service.

Quite a lot of spirit and enthusiasm is being stirred up at the local school by the students. The different rooms are cooperating so as to form a better and more solid cheering section.

Thursday morning a local business man spoke to the students and his talk started the "ball roll", but it must be kept in motion by others if the spirit is to continue. So if every loyal fan does his best in the form of encouragement the team will not fall down if they can help it.

Remember it starts at 2:30, bring your horn and toot and root all you please but don't kick over the traces and be unsportsmanlike.

Pennsylvania Lutheran Pastors Demand Church Action On The Marriage Of Divorced To A Divorce

By HAZEL MACDONALD
N. S. Special Correspondent
Chicago, Oct. 23.—The age-old
question of divorce and re-marriage
is for discussion at today's session of the biennial convention of the Lutheran church in America.
Bringing forth an appeal for a
ruling from the church for
guidance of its clergymen asked to be at ceremonies where one
of the contracting parties have
divorced.
The present church code holds that Lutheran clergyman may re-
marry the innocent party to a divorce
on the one ground recognized
in the new testament—that of infi-

delity could be no misinterpretation.
The responsibility of determining
which is the innocent party is "rest
great for the individual clergyman to assume," Dr. George W. Nicely, of Hanover, Pa., President of the West
Pennsylvania synod, where the agitation for a new ruling originated, said
today.
Besides, as Dr. George Albert Getty,
another member of the West Pennsylvania synod, pointed out, while the
present rule by limitation condemns it,
it does not definitely forbid a Lutheran
clergyman from performing a marriage ceremony for persons who have been divorced. "So some of them will
and some of them won't. There is no uniformity of action. If a divorced
person can't get married in his own
parish, the chances are that the pastor of the next parish will accommodate him and that the person so accommodated will transfer his membership to the parish of the more
obliging pastor."

The aim of the West Pennsylvania
synod in the matter was set forth by
Rev. G. E. Bowersox, Shrewsbury,
Pa. It contemplates:
First: A National law making it
necessary to state on the divorce decree the grounds on which the divorce
was obtained, and
Second: A church ruling setting

forth under exactly what conditions
remarriage may be performed by a Lutheran clergyman.

Main Like Soot.

On Sunday, November 9, 1819, a
dense black cloud descended on Montreal, according to Doctor Atherton's
history. The cloud deposited a substance that looked and tasted like soot. On the following Tuesday after
a dark morning of gloom, with the sun
clouded at times greenish black, pitch
black, dingy orange and blood red,
so that some thought Montreal was
going to be another Pompeii, and that Mount Royal would erupt. At three
in the afternoon rain fell again of
the same sooty character, amid fearful
thunder and lightning. At four the summit of the steeple of Notre Dame
church was struck by lightning. Before the fire was extinguished the cross fell in pieces. As the sooty substance flowed along the gutters it carried a dense foam like soapuds.

More to the Point.

An enterprising Montreal coal dealer
carries on his stallionery the slogan:
"We are all black business, but we treat you white." A customer who had just received a statement for his winter supply of coal at the trifling price
of $22 per ton, sent a check in payment, accompanied by the suggestion
that the slogan be changed to: "We are
good."—Forbes Magazine.

This Heating System, Conceded to Be the Most Durable, Economical, Cleanly, and Desirable Is Fully Guaranteed

With a responsibility of more than three million dollars, The Beckwith Company—Round Oak Folks—pledge to you twenty, thirty or more years of supreme service, satisfaction, and economy. The advantages in construction must really be seen to be appreciated. It is the one heating system on the market so constructed as to avoid inconvenience, regret, and unnecessary expense in the after years.

ROUND OAK PIPELESS HEATING SYSTEM

What Does the Other Fellow Say?

When you have a Round Oak Pipeless
Heating System in your home, there are no
more chilly corners and rooms but all is cozy and snug. The temperature of the cellar is not changed; vegetables keep beautifully in our open cellar. We find it
very convenient to start a little wood fire to take the chill from the whole house. We heated six rooms with four tons of coal last winter. From consumer letter.

We have ten good sized rooms in the house,
nine foot ceilings, and I would not trade my Round Oak Pipeless Heating System for a
hot water or steam system if you would put it in for nothing. What surprises me most
is that the temperature does not vary more than 2 degrees in any room downstairs and
not more than 5 degrees upstairs. I used
less than five tons of coke last winter.—
From consumer letter.

The reasons why are patented. It has several distinct advantages that will justify, and, we say without hesitation, compliment your investigation. We guarantee the service and satisfaction rendered.

Sunshine Air-Tight Heaters Will Heat Your Home Right

We are getting a lot of praise about these Sunshine Air-Tight Heaters. They're a double heater and are so made that every possible atom of heat is gotten out of the fuel you use.

And there's a finish to these heaters that does away with the old idea of having to blacken the heater. We have them in Blue, Black, Brown, Green and Gray. The nickel work is so done that it will stay bright and also relieve the housewife of that odious work.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

Cambria county people are asking for more State Police or a separate organization to enforce the dry law, alleging Gov. Pinchot has ordered the State Police to center their efforts on law violators ahead of every other species of crime. In support of their theory they cite the recent cases of robberies in their section, perpetrators of which have escaped detection and arrest. They refer to the attempted robbery of paymaster of Windber Silica Sand Co. Robbery of paymaster of Dexter Coal Co. near Ashville. Robbery of First National Bank in Bakerton. Robbery of Penn Traffic store in Johnstown. Robbery and murder at concrete bridge near Colver. Robbery of Citizens National Bank at Bolivar. Also many other crimes of lesser importance.

More than one-fourth of the student body of 3443 men and women at the Pennsylvania State College are affiliated with the Presbyterian Church, according to a religious census just completed by the college registrar. There are twenty-five different denominations noted by students in their religious preferences. The highest in student numbers follow:

Presbyterian, 831; Methodist, 769; Lutheran, 455; Roman Catholic, 365; Baptist, 233; Episcopal, 194; Baptist, 139; Hebrew, 102; Evangelical, 82; Friends, 52; and United Brethren, 47.

Martin W. Littleton, noted New York lawyer, it is needless to add, is for La Follette for President. He is a vocal brickbat he hurled at third party candidates in an address made at a recent meeting of the American Defense Society in New York. In speaking of the two Senators, he said:

Johnson, 642 N. 3rd St., Philadelphia, is offering to give one FREE to the first person in each locality who will help introduce it. Write him today for particulars. distinction of being the only two men who ever offered themselves for the first offices of the country who hoisted the white flag in times of war and the red flag in times of peace.

"When they did emerge, they did so somewhat without a country and wholly without a party, for they had forfeited their claims upon both."

That immigration to the United States has been effectively curbed by new immigration regulations is indicated by the first report of their operation made by Commissioner of Immigration W. W. Husband. It shows that during July, when the new quotas went into force, only 11,661 immigrants were admitted into the United States, and that of this number only 585 were charged to the recognized quotas. During the same month 8,493 aliens returned to their native land, thus revealing that the net gain in citizenship from the flow of immigrants was slightly more than 3,000. This is regarded as remarkable by immigration officials, since the rush of aliens to this country heretofore reached its highest peak in July.

COOLIDGE'S WAR ON HIGH TAXES

All taxes laid against productive enterprises are paid by the ultimate purchaser. Taxes are a legitimate cost item, and the selling price of any finished article is based on the total of all cost items, plus a profit on each one. The consumer pays this profit on all the taxes that figure in the cost, in addition to the taxes.

In striking at high taxes, President Coolidge is laying the axe at the root of one of the chief causes of high prices. He is reducing the cost of living. He is shortening the spread between producer and consumer. He is enabling the farmer to get a bigger share of the consumer's dollar.

It is true that measured by the figures on the tax receipt, national taxes are now much less than State and local taxes, and that the President is powerless to reduce the latter. But national taxes are grievous in themselves. Moreover, the Federal taxes are to a great extent levied against industrial, financial, transportation and utility enterprises, and individuals engaged therein, thus directly entering into costs that are pyramided and passed on. The poor man who thinks he pays no income tax is mistaken. He helps pay some of the biggest income taxes, if he buys anything at all. The farmer helps pay them when he buys a piece of machinery or any manufactured article. The working man helps pay them when he buys food or clothing for his family. Everybody pays.

The national debt and the cost of operating the Government are the causes of the Federal taxes. The only way to get rid of the national debt is to pay it. The only way to reduce the cost of government is to economize. President Coolidge is doing both, with amazing success.

CEASE FIRING

By FLORENCE DAVIES

"The war is over, but army keeps on fighting," is a headline which appeared in the paper the other day.

The story, as one might guess, referred to the war in China, which, like all Chinese wars, was carried on to some extent at least, on something of a comic opera basis.

Wars in China have been frequent, but never very bloody. The Chinese at heart are a peaceable people, and rather welcome a good sound rain storm which is the signal for the cessation of hostilities.

Who wants to go out in the rain for the fun of fighting?

But in the recent scrimmage the Chinese kept whangung away, (not very fatally, it is true) long after a truce had been declared, just because some one forgot to tell them to stop.

It was just a piece of carelessness, a slip, which kept the good natured Chinese soldiers firing long after the signal should have been given to stop.

But it's something worse than carelessness, which keeps a good many people that you and I know busily fighting long after a quarrel is supposed to be over.

It's a great thing to know when to stop. It's a great thing to be able to stop a fight and go on with the next thing.

There are many people who never learn that a war is over, whether it's a national or an international, or a personal war.

It has taken to the north and to learn that 1865.

It's the same

personal quarrels.

Perhaps as long as we are human and are limited by human frailties

and failings we will fall into difficulties with each other. But if there

must be these

mimic battles in our families and

churches, our clubs

and offices, wouldn't

it be a great thing

to learn how to

quit when the thing

is over?

But some people

insist upon har-

doring grudges, and

treasuring up

old hurts. They seem to think that some imaginary

quality known as pride or honor is

at stake, whereas,

the true honor

would lie in being

big enough to hold out the hand

after a misunderstanding and

saying, "We were both a little

wrong; let's forget

it and go on."

There are actually

good English

patriots who have never heard that the Revolutionary war is over; rabid

Americans who still think that the boys are

just about to charge right

on Bunker Hill;

neighbors who are still worrying over 60-year-

old boundary

line quarrels;

families who have not forgotten yesterday's squabble, all of them quite as

foolish as those

comic opera

Chinese soldiers who went on fighting after the war was over.

It's a great thing

to stop when you are through, whether it's talking or fighting.

CLEARFIELD TRUST CO.

Curwensville's
Crown Column

A Curwensville Council of Republican Women will be organized in the American Legion Rooms, Curwensville, Friday evening, October 24th at 7:30. Every Republican woman is invited to attend and join this organization.

Work has been resumed on the finishing up of the new concrete Anderson creek bridge. The underpinning at the second or south span has been removed and the structure will be gone over and floated to a smoothness that will look something like workmanship, on the walls which hedge each side of the flooring. The main work on the main bridge was perfectly strong and durable enough, but the finishing was something horrible to an artistic eye, and Council refused to accept the bridge until these defects were remedied, which no doubt will be accomplished within the next few days.

Misses Maude and Blanche Graham former public school teachers in this bailiwick, now of Altoona, spent several days of this week visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rhodes, George street. Both young ladies have many warm friends in Curwensville who are always pleased to welcome them in their midst.

Little Violet Confer is confined to her home this week suffering from a sprained ankle, received while coming down a pair of steps at one of the public school buildings. The little lady is lamenting the accident not so much from the pain but from the fact that she is compelled to remain away from her school.

Charlie Addleman has purchased a corner of the William Durnell lot on Bloomington avenue and will erect a garage building thereon, which is sadly needed over that side of town.

Tensie and R. K. Way have the street front of their stationery store painted, which adds greatly to its appearance. Now if the two buildings were to receive a dressing of paint, that block would look rather presentable to people from a distance who pass through the town daily.

Five birthdays in one family in one week is something that does not occur very often in a community, yet this is just what did happen in the family of Jack Dallute this week.

W. S. Williams, father of Mrs. C. D. Doverspike, New Bethlehem, met with sudden death from a fall from a building on Tuesday on which he was working. He was aged 76 years, Mrs. Doverspike left immediately upon receipt of the sad news for her old home. The body will be held until Monday, pending the arrival of relatives from California, and will be buried on that day.

A trip around among a number of Curwensville merchants yesterday caused us to invoke the sentiment that business in their several lines is on the increase over that of the previous month. Especially are fall and winter goods in demand, and the recent cold snap of the present week, has caused many to change from light to a heavier grade of wearing apparel. The hardware line is especially brisk as many families were compelled to purchase new heating and cooking stoves and accessories.

DELIGHTFUL HALLOWE'EEN

Raymond Roseberry, of North Third street, is a patient at the Clearfield hospital as the result of an attack of pneumonia.

Mr. Brady recovered consciousness shortly after reaching the hospital. His injuries were found to consist of a broken rib and severe contusions about the body, while he also had a cut on the back of his head. MARKET STREET SEWER BUILDING ENDED FOR YEAR

Foreman W. H. Holt and his crew, having completed the big 24-inch Market street sewer to a point in front of Miss Ella Shaw's residence on the east side of Front street, has halted the building of the sewer at that point for this year. The sewer is intended as a surface water drain, designed to relieve the long-continued unsatisfactory condition in the Fourth street section, but on account of the depth of the sewer and the expensive nature of its construction Council was compelled to order a halt in its construction at this time because its cost was exceeding the estimates.

The section of sewer completed is about 548 feet long. The entire length of the sewer is approximately 1900 feet, but the most expensive part of it is now laid, as it was necessary for Foreman Holt and his crew to tunnel across Market street near the river, a distance of 189 feet, while the sewer for its entire length was tunneled with the exception of the needed openings every 25 or 30 feet.

The work was done without interference with traffic or the shade trees along the High School property under which the sewer passes. It was dangerous work on account of the depth of the sewer and the character of the ground through which it was constructed, but not a man was injured during the work. The sewer was built by the Clearfield Electric Supply Company under the supervision of the Clearfield Electric Supply Company. Wants to Know What Kills Her.

There had been an unusually severe thunderstorm during the night, and old Mrs. Jarvie, for the first time in her life, slept through it. As a rule, she rose, lit her candle, dressed herself and sat in a chair on a rubber mat. Rather than being thankful that she was not aware of the storm, the old lady waxed warm with wrath the following morning when she heard of it. "Mercy me! I should think I was in a boarding-house 'stead of being among my own folks in my own home. What's there one of my children or grandchildren that thought enough of me to wake me? I might have been struck by lightning in my sleep and never known what killed me!"—Every body's laughing.

Pot and Kettle.

A prisoner in a certain Laneshire Prison, having been sentenced on several occasions, was asked by the chaplain on leaving to reform, as he was costing the country a lot of money by his behavior. The prisoner replied, "I don't know about me costing it a lot. I think you cost it more. You're always here when I see a and I always leave when you see a. What's the use of me?"

Our "West End" Suit Is British, But Not Foppish

ENGLISH styles start in the West End of London and, thence, girdle the globe. Our "West End" Model follows the over-ocean fashion trend sensibly, not slavishly. It's British without being foppish. 2 buttons; semi-straight back without vent; short double-breasted waist-coat; full-draped trousers; smart beyond words, though not beyond your price.
